Places to visit

Places to visit in Waukesha/Milwaukee

Harley-Davidson Museum

Located on a 20-acre campus in downtown Milwaukee, the Harley-Davidson Museum brings a taste of rebellion and classic American culture to both the „wild“ and „mild“ with interactive exhibits. This museum is the only Harley-Davidson museum in the world and whether you're a devoted biker or just interested in learning more about an American institution, you'll find plenty to explore.

Lakefront Brewery

Milwaukee's own Lakefront Brewery Inc. started in 1987. The industrious and inventive microbrewery located on the Milwaukee River has become a Milwaukee landmark. It's rich history includes partnerships with local taverns, preservation of local historical pieces, unique tours, family style dining options and most importantly, great beer

Milwaukee Riverwalk

In the heart of downtown Milwaukee, the two-mile long Riverwalk winds along the Milwaukee River with access to some of the city's best restaurants, brewpubs, shops and waterfront nightlife. Eye-catching public art gives the RiverWalk the feel of an outdoor gallery and colorful, user-friendly directional signs elaborate on the city's history

Mitchell Park Horticulture Conservatory (The Domes)

Purchased by the Milwaukee Park Commission in 1889, this is the city's oldest park. The Milwaukee Domes are three beehive-shaped glass domes, 140 feet in diameter at the base and 85 feet high, offering 15,000 square feet of growing space for plant display. Each dome has a distinct climate and exhibit plants in naturalistic setting: Desert, Tropical and Floral Show domes.

Pabst Mansion

This Flemish Renaissance Revival-style estate was the home of Captain Frederick Pabst, Milwaukee's famed beer baron, from 1892 until 1908. After the Pabst descendants sold the house in 1908, it became the archbishops's residence and the center of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Milwaukee for more than sixty years. The Mansion was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1979. Daily guided tours are available
